ICH GLEICH OINK!

If he's any relation to that Uncle Pigg, he's probably saying something very rude!

JAPANESE JAKE!

A world of bacon Pigs waiting to be pork-chops Sows rolling in the mud. — Paul Spurgeon, Kent.

Thanks to Paul Who composed the above 'Haiku' Which is a kind of Japanese poem with lines of different lengths and it doesn't have to rhyme and I'm not very good at it myself. — Uncle Pigg.

PEKING TOM!

I read in my dad's 'Trivial Pursuit' game that China is the country with the biggest pig-population in the world. Why not start a Chinese-language 'OINK!'? — Tom Cox, Chorlton.

YOU'RE JOKING! IT'S 'PIG' ENGLISH! TRYING TO READ IT IN ENGLISH!

STUTTGART SWINE!

Last word from around the world comes from a picture postcard found by 'Harry the Head' artist Marc Riley in Germany! Well done, Marc — I might even let you go on holiday next year as well!

frank's travel snaps

hello, oink readers.....now, every year i travel to blackpool for a free holiday with my auntie edith....because she lives there, actually. so what i did was to take some fantastic photos of my week there for you to see.....and you know what?....i only went and blinkin' left them on the train. but luckily i could remember them... so here is an artist's impression. (as i am one).

- * i forgot to wind the film on....
- * 2 shots of me...
- * blackpool sunset
- * auntie edie's teapot.

- * i love a ride on the big dipper.

- * i don't like the trip round the bay.

HORACE (the Head) WATKINS

Readers will remember when Horace, mistaken for an alien, was blasted out of the sky by an army missile. Will Horace survive? Will he live? Read this issue's gripping continuation...

Horace told Harry his story, so Harry called his mate, Barney...

Don't worry, Horace! We'll find your body!

Oh No! They've blown me up! Aah! Where's my body?

Ouch! Ah! Harry the Head, I presume. (Wow! Horace Watkins! Eh! Where's your body?)

Going!

Don't worry, I'll soon get rid of it for you!

What's with you, Barney, collecting heads or something? Yuk! That's an ugly one!

Oh No! Water-and I can't swim especially with no body!

Booagh!... I'm sinking!!

Boo! Bye! Bye! Head!

Help me, quick! I've got no arms and legs and I'll drown! Eh... They've come back! Oh, leave him, Ben! He sounds weird!

Phew! It must all have been a dream! The flying must have sent me to sleep! I think I'll take up Origami!
